

UNION of JAMAICAN ALUMNI ASSOCIATIONS U.S.A., Inc.

Education is Empowerment, only the Educated are Free

• • • • • • • • • •

UJAA'S MARCH 2023 FEATURE ON WOMEN IN THE UJAA FAMILY WOMEN'S HISTORY MONTH 2023

Name Title:Ms.First Name:LesleyannLast Name:SamuelContact Number:(301)704-6307Email Address:lesvsam@yahoo.com

Alumni Member Association Affiliation/Reference: UJAA IPP; ICHS AA NY Chapter

Why this choice: Followed in my Mom's footsteps who was an Industrial Engineer and one of a very few Black Women in her field of Fashion.

How long have you been doing this: Since I graduated from college, I've been working in telecommunications. Rose from engineer to Director (middle management); now a Technical Writer responding to Federal Proposals – this combines my technical knowledge of the business with my love of writing and affords to flexibility to do from anywhere – coffee shop to beach.

How did this interest come about: Loved mathematics as a child; exposed to computer science (programming) while in high school; scholarship to Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute – had relatively few Black students (and even fewer faculty and staff).

What is great about it: Afforded me a perspective of what it means to be unique – a privilege, and a challenge; led to my desire to be a role model for other Black girls and to give forward.

What is not so great about it: Not many role models.

Additional remarks or information: I've been blessed – my life steps have been guided. My life, my work is His. I have no worries, no fears. I proceed as if success is inevitable and I need to just Live and Love Simply.

*Check us out on the website – www.ujaausa.org - during the month of March 2023 to see when your unique story is posted.

*We would also like to share the stories on our social media platform. If you prefer that it NOT be posted on the UJAA social media pages, please let us know.

The Marketing & Public Relations and Membership Committees thank you for taking the time to respond to- UJAA'S March 2023 Women's Feature.

We appreciate you.